

AMENDMENT TO IFCC STATUTES AND RULES 2016

STATUTES OF THE IFCC

Preamble

Clinical Chemistry and Laboratory Medicine is a clinical specialty that involves the study and application of chemistry, molecular biology and other laboratory sciences to human healthcare. The specialty is applied to maintaining public wellbeing and to the screening of pre-disease or early disease states, diagnosis, staging, monitoring, treatment and management of patients with a wide range of disorders. The scope of the subject matter of this discipline is recognised by several names in various parts of the world (e.g. clinical biochemistry, physiological chemistry, chemical pathology). Included in its scope are the chemical facets of all areas of laboratory medicine. The International Federation of Clinical Chemistry and Laboratory Medicine (IFCC) was formed to advance the science and practice of laboratory medicine throughout the world in the interest of the peoples of the world.

These articles of association were approved by the IFCC Council on June 18, 1972 and amended by the IFCC Council on July 13, 1975. They were further reviewed and amended by Council on April 29, 1984, November 14, 1993, in 2003, on July 24, 2005, on June 30, 2013 and on April 01, 2016.

RULES OF IFCC

1. VOTING PROCEDURES ESTABLISHED FOR COUNCIL (Refer to Statute 5.12)

- 1.1. The voting members of Council are the formal representatives of Full Members (ref. Statutes 5.2 and 5.3). Only those Full Members in good standing are eligible to vote. The determination of those in good standing will be made by the Executive Board. (refer to Rule 6.2.1).
- 1.2. Each Full Member of good standing shall have one vote. No person shall cast votes on behalf of more than one Member.
- 1.3. All formal Council votes will be conducted by electronic ballot. Opinion may be sought by a show of hands at a Council meeting but on constitutional matters views expressed at a Council meeting will be subject to confirmation by electronic ballot.
- 1.4. Advanced notice of at least one month will be given for any electronic vote. The period available for voting will be one month from the opening to the closure of the ballot.
- 1.5. The electronic ballot for President, Secretary and Treasurer will be conducted by ballot of all IFCC Full Members. Nominations for all positions will be submitted at least four months ahead of each Council Meeting. The election of the President, Secretary and Treasurer will take place at least three months before each Council Meeting. The results of this election will be communicated to Members by electronic mail at least two months before the Council Meeting.
- 1.6. Voters will be presented with a list of named candidates for the election of IFCC Officers. A short personal statement from each candidate will be distributed by IFCC before the ballot opens. This personal statement will include confirmation that the candidate has the support of his/her national society Member of IFCC.
- 1.7. If only one valid nomination is received for a vacant position then the nominee will be appointed without the need for a confirmatory ballot. The name and nationality of the appointed person will be included on the ballot paper for information.
- 1.8. The IFCC Full Members in each of the Regional Federations will elect one Member to serve on the Executive Board. Regional Federation elections should be concluded in time to allow the elected Member of the Executive Board to be announced at the IFCC Council meeting.
- 1.9. The Corporate Member Representative on the Executive Board will be elected by electronic or mail ballot of the Corporate Members. Nominations will be sought at least four months before a Council meeting and the ballot will be concluded at least two months before the Council meeting.
- 1.10. The electronic ballot for President Elect will take place at least three months prior to the end of the second year of the three year term of office of each Executive Board. The result of this election will be communicated to Members by electronic mail at least two months before the end of the same year.
- 1.11. In the case of a casual vacancy during the normal Executive Board term, nominations will be solicited from the Membership and an electronic ballot will be conducted one month later (refer to Statute 6.7).
- 1.12. Council may be invited to vote on other issues at any time. The results of occasional elections will be communicated to Members of IFCC by electronic mail within one month of the conclusion of the ballot (refer to Statute 5.12)
- 1.13. For ballots that involve the election of persons to positions other than to the Executive Board or to other representative positions voters will be presented with a list of options. A short explanation of the ballot and each of the options will be distributed before the opening of the ballot.
- 1.14. Under the Alternative Voting System voters express their preferences across the range of candidates or options, using a '1' for their first preference, a '2' for their second preference and so on until all candidates or options have been considered. Voters may express as many or as few preferences as they wish.

1.15 Counting of the votes under the Alternative Voting System follows strict rules.

- It begins with a count of all first preference votes. If one candidate or option achieves more than 50% of first preference votes that candidate or option is declared the winner.
- If no candidate or option achieves more than 50% of first preference votes then the candidate or option that received the least number of votes is eliminated. The voters who had given their first preference vote to the eliminated candidate or option now have their second preference votes allocated to the remaining candidates and the number of votes is again recorded. If one candidate or option achieves more than 50% of first preference, and second preference votes from the eliminated candidate, that candidate or option is declared the winner
- This process of reallocating lower preference votes from eliminated candidates or options continues until one candidate or option achieves more than 50% of eligible votes.
